

Wireless Internet access is now available at the Newton Library

- You will need to bring your own wireless devices, such as a laptop with a wireless card
- Wireless access is available during Library open hours. The Newton Library is located at 13795-70th Avenue
- This service will be made available at other library branches, at a later date.

